9/23/18 Jackson Invite:

Senior Nick Couyoumjian was Northville's top finisher taking 19th overall in Saturday's Jackson Invitational held at Ella Sharp Park.

The Mustangs, racing a split squad 'A' and 'B' teams in the varsity race, finished eighth in the 'A' team standings. The 'B' team took second of the 'B' teams.

Clarkston paced the 26-school Division 1 field with 74 points, while Ann Arbor Pioneer and Saline took second and third with 111 and 134 points, respectively.

Ann Arbor Pioneer's Nick Foster was the individual winner, clocking 15 minutes, 3.1 seconds for the 5,000-meter course, while Couyoumjian finished in 16:11.4.

Other scorers for Northville included Alex Flegal, 43rd (16:47.9), Josh Hardy, 57th (16:55.6), Josh Morissey, 60th (16:58.8), Sean McKee, 66th 17:01.2, Brandon Liu, 72nd 17:07.1, and Raymond Jiang, 102nd (17:32.0).

"It was a competitive race and our team ran with a chip on our shoulders," head coach Tim Dalton said.

Scorers for the Mustang 'B' team included sophomore Sam Craig (16:57.0), junior Ben Steinig (16:59.0), senior Jack Spangler (17:12.0), freshman Brian McCallum (17:13.5), junior Alex Beloiu (17:30.1), junior Grant Gattoni (17:55.6), and sophomore Zach Helner (17:57.4).

"Eleven of the guys ran personal bests this morning, and five finished under 17 minutes for their first time," Dalton said. "We've got some work left to do this season, but the times are showing we are improving week to week."
